ORDER

On June 10, 2014, Administrative Law Judge Mary Miller Cracraft of the National Labor Relations Board issued her Decision in the above-entitled proceeding and, on the same date, the proceeding was transferred to and continued before the Board in Washington, D.C. The Administrative Law Judge found that the Respondent has not engaged in certain unfair labor practices, and recommended that the complaint be dismissed.

Counsel for the General Counsel filed timely exceptions to the Judge's Decision, but subsequently filed a motion to withdraw those exceptions. That motion is hereby granted.

Accordingly, as there are no exceptions pending before the Board, and the time allowed for such filing having expired,

Pursuant to Section 10(c) of the National Labor Relations Act, as amended, and Section 102.48 of the National Labor Relations Board Rules and Regulations, the Board adopts the findings and conclusions of the Administrative Law Judge as contained in her Decision, and the recommended Order of the Administrative Law Judge becomes the Order of the Board.

Accordingly, the complaint is dismissed.

Dated, Washington, D.C., October 17, 2016.

By direction of the Board:

/s/ Leigh A. Reardon

Associate Executive Secretary
